In the early half of the 1900s, founder Frank Griff, an immigrant 19 years of age, sought opportunity as a merchant in Broken Hill. There he established 'Frank Griff – General Furnisher & Importer.'

Growth and opportunity lead Frank to Sydney, where he established an eight-floor furniture business on Pitt Street. The business was renamed Valiant in the early Mid-Century and is still owned and operated by Frank Griff's family to this day.

There is nothing better than celebrating in style.

Valiant has an extensive range of furniture and accessories to create unique style-forward events. With in-house creative and delivery teams, Valiant services NSW, VIC, QLD and neighbouring regions for events of any scale.
